

『2017 Global Talent Program in Japan』 Concept Note

“Invest in Future Generations”

The Global Talent Program (GTP) provides students at Seoul National University (SNU) with the opportunity to apply their academic knowledge to the global work environment. During the program, students visit the host organizations, present their ideas, and discuss the subject matter with specialists in global companies. Organizations may offer career opportunities to outstanding participants of this program. Extracurricular activities include meetings with distinguished leaders, networking sessions with local alumni and visits to cultural sites.

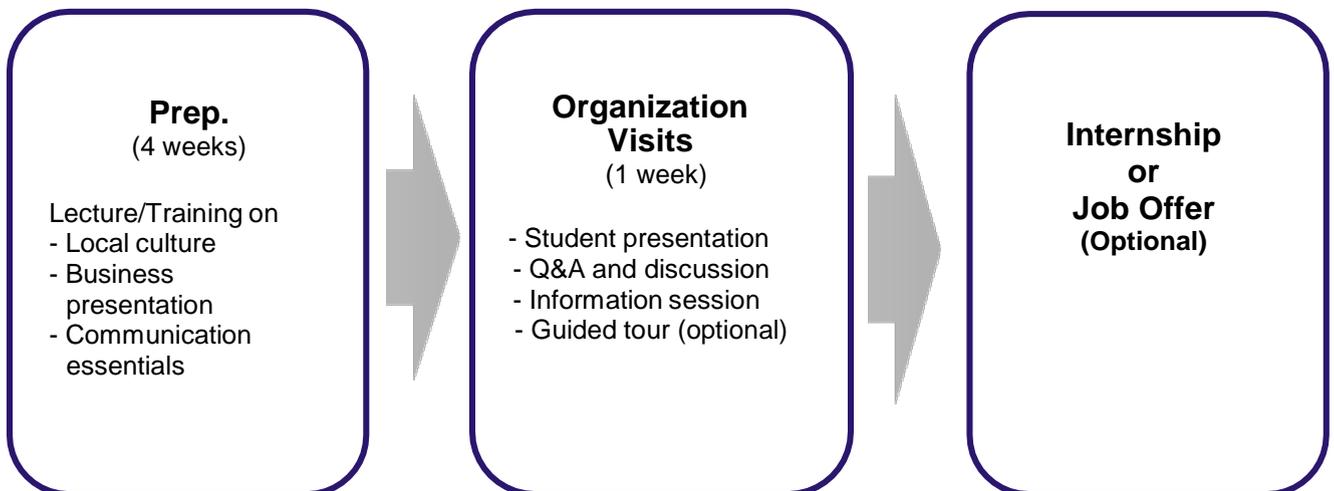

Overview

- Theme: Top-tier investment banking and high-tech industries in Japan
- Date: August 20(Sun) – 26 (Sat), 2017
- Location: Tokyo, Japan
- Organizers (No.): Professor (1) of SNU and staff member (1) from SNU Career Development Center
- Participants (No.): Graduate and undergraduate (junior/senior) students (11) from SNU

Objective

- To assist students in their efforts to find global career opportunities
- To promote talented students to global organizations
- To establish a global network with organization specialists and alumni overseas

Framework

Student Profile
