

International Symposium for the Future-Oriented Korea-Japan Relations

“Envisioning East Asian peace from the abyss of Korea-Japan history conflicts”

Nov. 29, 2019 Center for Research Strategy, NRC

◆ Overview

- Date : December 10, 2019 (Tue), 13:00-17:50
- Venue: Brahms Hall, Hotel President (19th fl.)
- Host: National Research Council of Economics, Humanities and Social Sciences (NRC)
- Organizer: Korea Legislation Research Institute (KLRI), Institute for Japanese Studies of Seoul National University

◆ Program

Time		Program
Facilitator: Yi-Gyo KIM, Director General of Center for Research Strategy, NRC
13:00 ~ 13:05	(5')	Opening, Introduction of VIPs
13:05 ~ 13:20	(15')	Opening Ceremony <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Opening Remarks : Kyoung-Ryung SEONG (Chairman, NRC) · Welcoming Remarks : Kye-Hong KIM (President, KLRI) · Congratulatory Remarks : Su-Hoon LEE (Korea's Former Ambassador to Japan)
13:20~13:50	(30')	Keynote Speech (30') The Roots of Korea-Japan Conflict in US, Chinese and Global Perspective Mark SELDON, Professor, Cornell University, US
13:50~14:00	(10')	Commemorative Photograph Session

< Session 1 >

"Korea-Japan History Conflicts and the International Community of East Asia"

· Moderator

Hyun-Chul KIM, Director, Institute for Japanese Studies, Seoul National University, Korea

· Presentation 1 (20')

"The Unraveling of the 1965 System."

Lauren RICHARDSON

*Director of Studies & Lecturer, Asia-Pacific College of Diplomacy,
The Australian National University, Australia*

· Presentation 2 (20')

"Historical Reconciliation in East Asia and the Problem of Japan's War Memory"

Akiko TAKENAKA

Associate Professor, Department of History, University of Kentucky, US

· Presentation 3 (20')

"The Issue of Japan's Forced Mobilization and International Law

/ Can peace treaties extinguish human rights? "

Etsuro TOTSUKA,

Visiting Research scholar of Ahn Joongun Asian Peace Research Center of Ryukoku University, Kyoto, Japan

· Panel Discussion (40') & QnA (10')

- G. Kurt PIEHLER, Associate Professor of History at Florida State University, US

- Tae Gyun PARK, Professor of Modern Korean History, Seoul National University, Korea

- Keeseok KIM, Professor, Dept. of Political Science, Kangwon National University, Korea

- Hyun-Cheol KANG, Researcher, KLRI, Korea

15:50 ~ 16:00 (10') Coffee Break

16:00 ~ 17:50 (110') < Session 2 >

"Conditions and prospects for rebuilding the relationship between the Korean Peninsula and Japan"

· Moderator

Ki jeong NAM, Professor, Institute for Japanese Studies, Seoul
National University, Korea

· Presentation 1 (20')

"Justice in Time. Limits on Superseding Past Injustices"

Lukas MEYER, Professor, University of Graz, Germany

· Presentation 2 (20')

Critique on the Claim Settlement Agreement and Japan's Argument to Settle "Reparations for Historical issues"

Ota OSAMU, Professor, Doshisha University, Japan

· Presentation 3 (20')

Korea-Japan's '1965 Treaty' and the Normalization of Diplomatic Relations Between North Korea and Japan

Jung-Jin PARK, Professor, Tsuda University, Japan

· Panel Discussion (40')

- Mark E. CAPRIO, Professor, Rikkyo University, Japan
- Dong-Ki LEE, Professor, Dept. of History, Gangneung-Wonju
National University, Korea
- Chang Rok KIM, Professor, Law School of Kyungpook National University, Korea
- Yong Il RHEE, Ambassador for International Relations, Sejong City

18:00 ~ 20:00 (120') Dinner

- Please note that the program above is subject to change.